Why Rewrite The News...

Woodshops News recently published an informative article "Three lawsuits and a cloud of dust" written by John English.

John has been diligently covering various dust collection issues for Woodshop News over the last few years. In this piece he takes a pragmatic look at some important issues facing woodworkers and woodworking companies. For example he states "dust control could soon be as important to woodshops as malpractice insurance is to doctors."

Dust Collection, Safety and Plant Operation Forum on WOODWEB

WOODWEB is the most highly visited web site for professional woodworkers, offering a comprehensive collection of industry related information, and a vibrant community of professional participants from wood related businesses and industries.

Air Handling Systems has been supporting WOODWEB since 1998. Shortly after being introduced to this valuable site we partnered with WOODWEB to launch the Dust Collection, Safety and Plant Operation Forum. For 14 years, Curt Corum, Air Handling Systems Sales Manager has been the moderator of this essential forum, focusing on plant layout, dust collection systems, and other ideas for maintaining a safe, productive working environment.

Closed Friday, April 18th

We will be closed on Friday April, 18th for Good Friday.
