Wood Industry Leaders on Capitol Hill

Air Handling Systems was represented by Jamison Scott and other leaders from the Wood Machinery Manufacturers of America, Woodworking Machinery Industry Association and Association of Woodworking & Furnishing Suppliers who converged on Capitol Hill on June 21 to advocate for the most important policy needs of the industry. Industry leaders pressed over two dozen lawmakers and their staff about supporting career technical education; specifically the reauthorization of the Perkins Act. Other issues discussed included corporate tax and health care reform. The event was part of the National Association of Manufacturers (NAM) Manufacturing Summit, held in Washington, DC, June 20-21.
